1 I met Mark when I was studying at York University.

2 We got to know each other quickly because we went to the same classes.

3 We soon became friends, and we discovered that we had a lot in common. For example, we both liked art and music.

4 We went out together in our second term and we fell in love.

5 We were together for two years, but we argued a lot and in our last term at university we broke up.

6 After we left university, we lost touch because I moved to London and he stayed in York.

7 Five years later we got in touch again on Facebook. We were both still single, and Mark had moved to London too.

8 This time we got on better than before, maybe because we were older.

9 After two months Mark proposed and I accepted.

10 We got married last summer. A lot of our old university friends came to the wedding!
