Page 81. Piano Man

It's nine o'clock on a Saturday
The regular crowd shuffles in
There's an old man sitting next to me
Making love to his tonic and gin
He says, 'Son, can you play me a memory?
I'm not really sure how it goes
But it's sad and it's sweet and I knew it complete
When I wore a younger man's clothes'
La la la di di da, la la di di da dum

Chorus

Sing us a song, you're the piano man
Sing us a song tonight
Well, we're all in the mood for a melody
And you've got us feeling alright
Now John at the bar is a friend of mine
He gets me my drinks for free
And he's quick with a joke for the out-of-town folk
But there's someplace that he'd rather be
He says, 'Bill, I believe this is killing me'
As the smile ran away from his face
'Well, I'm sure that I could be a movie star
If I could get out of this place.
Oh, la la la di di da, la la di di da dum
Now Paul is a real estate novelist
Who never had time for a wife
And he's talking with Davy who's still in the Navy
And probably will be for life
And the waitress is practising politics
As the businessmen talk to their phones
Yes, they're sharing a drink they call loneliness
But it's better than drinking alone

Chorus

It's a pretty good crowd for a Saturday,
And the manager gives me a smile
'Cause he knows that it's me they've been coming to see
To forget about life for a while.
And the piano, it sounds like a carnival
And the microphone smells like a beer
And they sit at the bar and put bread in my jar
And say, 'Man, what are you doing here?'
Oh, la la la da di da la la da di da dum

Chorus
