

9.A. Page 84. 1.b.c. The ticket inspector radioed Peterborough station and told them to make the train to Leeds wait for Bernard.

5 2)) The ticket inspector touched my arm. 'Listen; he said 'when we get to Peterborough station, run as fast as you can to platform 1. The Leeds train will be there.' I looked at him, without really understanding what he had said. 'What do you mean?' I said. 'Is the train late or something?' 'No, it's not late: the ticket inspector said. 'I've just radioed Peterborough station. The train is going to wait for you. As soon as you get on, it'll leave. The passengers will complain, but let's not worry about that. You'll get home, and that's the main thing.' And he walked away.

I suddenly realized what an amazing thing he had done. I got up and went after him. I wanted to give him everything I had, all the money in my wallet - but I knew he would be offended. I grabbed his arm. 'I... er ... just wanted to', but I couldn't continue.

'It's OK,' he said. 'No problem.' 'I wish I had a way to thank you; I said. 'I really appreciate what you've done.' 'No problem,' he said again. 'Listen, if you want to thank me, the next time you see someone in trouble, help them. That will pay me back. And tell them to do the same to someone else. It'll make the world a better place.'

When the train stopped, I rushed to platform 1 and sure enough the Leeds train was there waiting, and a few hours later I was with my mum in hospital.

Even now, years later, whenever I think of her, I remember the Good Ticket Inspector on that late-night train to Peterborough. It changed me from a young man who was nearly a criminal into a decent human being. I've been trying to pay him back ever since then.

Come on
Come on
Come on
Weren't you the one who said
That you don't want me anymore
And how you need your space
And give the keys back to your door
And how I cried and tried
And tried to make you stay with me
But still you said your love was gone
And that I had to leave

Chorus

(Now you) talking 'bout a family
(Now you) saying I complete your dream
(Now you) saying I'm your everything
You're confusing me, what you say to me
Don't play with me, don't play with me, 'cause ...
What goes around, comes around
What goes up, must come down
Now who's crying, desiring to come back to me?
What goes around, comes around
What goes up, must come down
Now who's crying, desiring, to come back?
I remember when I was sitting home alone
Waiting for you 'til three o'clock in the morn
And when you came home
You'd always have some sorry excuse
Half explaining to me
Like I'm just some kind of a fool
I sacrificed the things I want
Just to do things for you
But when it's time to do for me
You never come through

Chorus

Night after night knowing something going on
Wasn't long before I be g-g-g-gone
Lord knows it wasn't easy, believe me
Never thought you'd be the one that would deceive me
And never knew what you supposed to do
No need to approach me fool, 'cause I'm over you
What goes around, comes around
What goes up, must come down
Now who's crying, desiring to come back to me
What goes around, comes around
What goes up, must come down
It's called karma baby and it goes around
